T25X1 2., OGC, met at the White House with NSC staff officer Robert Kimmet and representatives of other Executive Branch agencies to discuss problems raised by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations' investigation of foreign intelligence activities in the U.S. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 25X1 3. LIAISON At the request of the Legislative Counsel, returned on his behalf several calls that had been made during the day by Mike Glennon, Legal Counsel, Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Glennon said that he wanted to impress upon the Legislative Counsel the importance that he (Glennon) attached to the resumption of briefings on certain foreign intelligence services. I told Glennon that I could not definitively commit us on this point without further consultation with the Legislative Counsel, but that in any case he and I would have to have a clear understanding on treatment of the transcripts and on his accepting gracefully our disinclination to answer specific questions. He said there was not much he could do about the transcripts and that there would be no more arguments about the questions. I told him that I would reserve next Friday, 13 October, for resumption of the briefings and that I would	1
THIRD AGENCY Along with THIRD AGENCY Along with God, met at the White House with NSC staff officer Robert Kimmet and representatives of other Executive Branch agencies to discuss problems raised by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations' investigation of foreign intelligence activities in the U.S. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 25X1 3. LIAISON At the request of the Legislative Counsel, returned on his behalf several calls that had been made during the day by Mike Glennon, Legal Counsel, Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Glennon said that he wanted to impress upon the Legislative Counsel the importance that he (Glennon) attached to the resumption of briefings on certain foreign intelligence services. I told Glennon that I could not definitively commit us on this point without further consultation with the Legislative Counsel, but that in any case he and I would have to have a clear understanding on treatment of the transcripts and on his accepting gracefully our disinclination to answer specific questions. He said there was not much he could do about the transcripts and that there would be no more arguments about the questions. I told him that I would reserve next Friday, 13 October, for resumption of the briefings and that I would be back in touch with him again to confirm whether or not they		JOURNAL.
Thursday - 5 October 1978 2.			L
Robert Kimmet and representatives of other Executive Branch agencies to discuss problems raised by the Senate Foreign Relations Subcommittee on International Operations' investigation of foreign intelligence activities in the U.S. (See Memorandum for the Record.) 3. LIAISON At the request of the Legislative Counsel, returned on his behalf several calls that had been made during the day by Mike Glennon, Legal Counsel, Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Glennon said that he wanted to impress upon the Legislative Counsel the importance that he (Glennon) attached to the resumption of briefings on certain foreign intelligence services. I told Glennon that I could not definitively commit us on this point without further consultation with the Legislative Counsel, but that in any case he and I would have to have a clear understanding on treatment of the transcripts and on his accepting gracefully our disinclination to answer specific questions. He said there was not much he could do about the transcripts and that there would be no more arguments about the questions. I told him that I would reserve next Friday, 13 October, for resumption of the briefings and that I would be back in touch with him again to confirm whether or not they			2
25X1 3. LIAISON At the request of the Legislative Counsel, returned on his behalf several calls that had been made during the day by Mike Glennon, Legal Counsel, Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Glennon said that he wanted to impress upon the Legislative Counsel the importance that he (Glennon) attached to the resumption of briefings on certain foreign intelligence services. I told Glennon that I could not definitively commit us on this point without further consultation with the Legislative Counsel, but that in any case he and I would have to have a clear understanding on treatment of the transcripts and on his accepting gracefully our disinclination to answer specific questions. He said there was not much he could do about the transcripts and that there would be no more arguments about the questions. I told him that I would reserve next Friday, 13 October, for resumption of the briefings and that I would be back in touch with him again to confirm whether or not they	Robert Kimmet agencies to di Relations Subc	met at the White House with NSC and representatives of other Exiscuss problems raised by the Secommittee on International Opera	staff officer cutive Branch ate Foreign ions' investigation for the Record 3. the Legislative that had been Senate Foreign to impress upon (Glennon) attantion foreign intell definitively of with the Legis would have to transcripts and to answer spect do about the tabout the quest 13 October, for the back in to	LIAISON A ve Counsel, returned on his beha made during the day by Mike Gle n Relations Committee. Glennon on the Legislative Counsel the i ached to the resumption of brief ligence services. I told Glenno commit us on this point without slative Counsel, but that in any have a clear understanding on t and on his accepting gracefully of cific questions. He said there transcripts and that there would stions. I told him that I would or resumption of the briefings a uch with him again to confirm wh	the request of f several calls mon, Legal Counsel, aid that he wanted portance that he mgs on certain that I could not further consultation case he and I reatment of the man disinclination was not much he could be no more arguments reserve next Friday, and that I would

25X1